Dear Commissioner Neave

Family violence, homelessness and affordable housing – a joint submission from 129 organisations

The undersigned organisations join together to call for urgent investment in affordable housing and services in Victoria to address the current links between family violence, housing and homelessness across the State.

Through our work in the housing, homelessness, community, family violence and legal sectors, our organisations know that Victoria's shortage of affordable housing:

1. Deters victims from leaving violent relationships.<sup>1</sup>
2. Pushes victims into homelessness.<sup>2</sup>
3. Can make perpetrators more isolated and increase the risk of repeated or escalated violence.<sup>3</sup>

A suite of solutions is required to break these links between family violence, housing and homelessness in Victoria. We collectively call on the Government to invest in these solutions:

1. Improving measures to sustain tenancies and prevent homelessness for women who can safely stay in their housing, including strengthened programs such as Safe @ Home responses, the Social Housing Advocacy and Support Program, legal representation for women facing eviction, and private rental brokerage schemes. $13.4 million per year could assist an additional 3800 families.<sup>4</sup>
2. Establishing a rapid rehousing program to assist women and children escaping family violence to be quickly rehoused with appropriate supports in place. $10 million per year could assist over 1000 women and their children.<sup>5</sup>
3. Improving affordable housing pathways for perpetrators of family violence to ensure they remain engaged with relevant supports to help prevent the risk of further violence.
4. Developing a long-term affordable housing strategy to address the soaring public housing waitlist and increasing unaffordability of private rental for low-income Victorians. An affordable housing growth fund of $200 million per year could build a minimum of 800 homes.<sup>6</sup>

Addressing Victoria's shortage of affordable housing must be a priority for the Royal Commission into Family Violence and for the Victorian Government.

Yours sincerely

<sup>1</sup> Just three in 100 two-bedroom rental lettings in the December 2014 quarter were affordable to a single parent reliant on Centrelink: Department of Health and Human Services, Rental Report December Quarter 2014. On 11–12 April 2015, less than 0.1% of private rental properties in metropolitan Melbourne were affordable and appropriate for a single mother of two children who relies on a parenting pension: Anglicare Australia, Anglicare Australia Rental Affordability Snapshot (2015), 88. There are currently 33,933 people on the Victorian public housing waiting list; 9,556 are eligible for 'early housing' due to urgent needs including unsafe housing as a result of family violence: Department of Health and Human Services, Public Housing Waiting and Transfer List March 2015.

<sup>2</sup> 99,892 people sought assistance from specialist homelessness services in Victoria 2013–14. 28% of these people cited domestic or family violence as the main reason they needed assistance: 25,104 people in total; 2,892 male; 22,213 female. See Australian Institute of Health and Welfare, Specialist Homelessness Services: 2013–2014 (2014), 'Table VIC2.14: Clients, by main reasons for seeking assistance, 2013–14, adjusted for non-response'.

<sup>3</sup> See, eg, Centre for Innovative Justice, Opportunities for Early Intervention: Bringing perpetrators of family violence into view (2015) 50: The report identifies that availability of housing for men excluded through the intervention order process is a key aspect of engaging with these men to address their issues and prevent further violence from occurring.

<sup>4</sup> $7.6 million to provide Safe @ Home measures to 1521 households ($5000 per package); $3 million to extend the Social Housing Advocacy and Support Program to provide approximately 1500 more case management episodes per year; $1.8 million to provide 500 women at risk of eviction with legal representation and social work support; and $1 million to double private rental brokerage packages to approximately 600 packages in total.

<sup>5</sup> Approximately $2.3 million in annual rental subsidies and $7.3 million in annual support costs could fund assistance to search for suitable properties, incentives for landlords to participate and medium term rental subsidies (of up to six months) to ensure the rent remains affordable. See Council to Homeless Persons, Pre Budget Submission 2015–16 (2015).

<sup>6</sup> See Making Social Housing Work: Better homes for low-income Victorians (2014), a joint paper of seven peak organisations, Community Housing Federation of Victoria, Victorian Council of Social Service, Council to Homeless Persons, Victorian Public Tenants Association, Tenants Union of Victoria, Domestic Violence Victoria, Justice Connect Homeless Law.
