ANONYMITY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

The Commission is calling for submissions as part of its work. Submissions are ideas and opinions from members of the public and organisations about the Commission's terms of reference.

The Commission accepts submissions in writing and they can be made on behalf of individuals or groups.

Submissions are public documents which may be looked at in our office, uploaded to our website, and referenced or included in our final report. At the request of the submitter, submissions can be:

- anonymous, meaning all identifying details are removed, or
- confidential, meaning no one but the Commissioners and Commission staff can view them.

If you do not ask for confidentiality or anonymity, your name and the contents of your submission will be made public, but not your contact details (eg address).

PLEASE SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING OPTIONS

- I am happy for this submission to be made public and for my name/the name of the organisation to be included.
- I ask that my submission be treated as anonymous, but it is ok to publish it and quote from it (name and identity will be removed).
- I ask that my submission (or the parts that I identify) be treated as confidential, and not be published or quoted by the Commission.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I understand that:

- I may be contacted by the Commission in relation to my submission.
- My name/the name of the organisation will be part of this published submission unless I tell you I do not want this to happen. Other contact details will be removed before publishing.
