

I was from a strict [redacted] Religion. Under that umbrella there was systematic abuse of the women and children in the family. The Minister (related) claimed to be "God's representative on earth" and "What goes on behind closed doors..." women in the family are there for that purpose & liked to be raped etc. there was drugging (many me because I wouldn't cooperate) rape and violence. He organized with another family to marry me off ^{so} they could continue the abuse. I was drugged twice before marriage and abortions performed without my knowledge and consent. My then husband joined in & cooperated.

When I went to the authorities, church, neighbours etc, for help I was beaten, kicked and semi strangled. My toddler [redacted] was also beaten. When I went to protect her he held me off by his hands on my throat (He was a [redacted]). His parents said "Deal with her, but not where it shows."

The Police said "What did you do to provoke him?" They did NOTHING. The church + neighbours DID NOTHING. His parents controlled the money. (Just enough for bills + food - no more) I made my + the kids clothes, including coats from material + secondhand. I had 1 pair of shoes and things summer + winter. My property has been stolen alot. I finally got away, finally, saved enough money to get away but endured continued harassment, court cases, child kidnap attempts and TWO contracts on my wife.

NOBODY WOULD HELP!!!!

P.S. Because I would no longer take the abuse I blew the whistle on these illegal activities. I am now ostracized by the perpetrators and their followers. They and the police have called me a liar and crazy.
