

Family violence

Power

Resentment

Dependency and “ownership”. Charming and appears capable.

Respect

Cultural (Tony Abbott) set by example-

Home

Work environment-(Stuart Forrester “Iluka”) Narngulu Operations Manager

School- girls submissive to impress the boys

Army Major (speech went viral)

Role models (football)

Attitudes of Religious Orders

Permeates the courts

Instinctive behaviour –we are still animals with survival instincts. Society has changed but our instinctive behaviour has not kept up with our current expectations. Men don't negotiate they resort to violence. Early development and language skills.

Managing anger (men) and being assertive (women).

Fear and unpredictability (preplanned abuse and demeaning behaviour)

Unable to express any opinion (men are not verbal).

Many women do not perceive what is occurring in the home as “domestic violence”.

Exacerbated by alcohol and drugs -

Guts to intervene. - men

Why is it that the woman is removed?

Owned property

Businesses run from the property but destroyed

Axe but no action- Police present

Rape but no action _ with draw action, pressured

Dog killed

Choked –action by a police woman (only positive)

Women into the home- police not at all interested. It is his house.

If you constantly call the police you are fobbed off, delayed, or laughter with derision.

Instigator asleep so “we won't disturb him”

If you don't call the police there is no record of violence.

Intervention Orders????

“Safe Futures”-recording the violence because the public and private persona are often diverse.

Court system needs to be reviewed- reliant on advice but the legal teams have their own agenda, and do not offer a resolution. If you are perceived as wealthy.

GPS bands- Does not solve the problem only covers it up.

Not a new problem=been covered up and under reported.
