Dear Sir/Madam,

Firstly, I would like to take this opportunity to thank-you for taking the time to listen to my problem. Hopefully something positive will eventuate from it. Without going into too much detail I'll tell you a bit about myself. I'm [REDACTED] years young, born in [REDACTED] and married for [REDACTED] years to a [REDACTED] and I have [REDACTED] aged [REDACTED] all living at home still. Throughout most of my marriage I have been beaten and my husband is controlling and very manipulative, but about [REDACTED] years ago I left and went into a refuge. He found me and brought me back home. He hasn't really hit me since but he is still manipulative and controlling. It is not my husband who is attacking me now, it is my [REDACTED] year old son, "Monkey see Monkey do!"

For me to leave I need to be able to survive financially. I don't want to be homeless and I don't want to go to another refuge. I want to be independent. My main concern and what I would like to see change is we need help and guidance to get a job and stay employed.
