

Few suggestions on behalf of Indian community representation -

- ① Cultural awareness of both ways (India \leftrightarrow Aus) is very important
- ② Migrants rather on student, skilled, humanitarian any visa should be provided an introductory rules, awareness sessions about domestic violence.
- ③ Religious places should have sessions on dealing with domestic violence.
- ④ 'Dowry' and 'Male Patriarchy' are the major role player in domestic violence issues specially in South Asian countries. Law should be made to address these issues here where the perpetrator is taking maximum advantage.
- ⑤ Organisations like Qayya (rarely formed working specially for domestic violence) get
- ⑥ Men's should receive consultation, training or behaviour change sessions once a case has been reported against them.
- ⑥ Education, campaigns, marches, workshops through art, media, dance, books, movies
AWARENESS should be spread.
